THE ROLE AND INDEPENDENCE OF LAWYERS: COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVES

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Organised jointly by the Council of Europe, the International Commission of Jurists and the Azerbaijani Bar Association

BAKU, 15-16 NOVEMBER 2018
FAIRMONT HOTEL BAKU
NIZAMI GANJAVI ROOM

The event is supported by the European Union/Council of Europe Joint Programme
Partnership for Good Governance

The Conference aims to bring together perspectives on the governance and role of the legal profession by international experts and representatives of bar associations from a wide range of countries. The interventions will provide a comparative view on the conditions and requirements that lawyers should comply with while carrying out their professional duty of protection of human rights of their clients. Participants of the Conference will address in particular the organization and governance of the legal profession, lawyers' ethics and qualification of lawyers. Special attention will be given to the role of training for lawyers in shaping an independent legal profession and the manifold resources offered by the Council of Europe and the International Commission of Jurists to that effect.
